

eBOBQuiz created for

Question	Title	Author	Reference
1. In which book does a character hide a bottle of water in her bureau drawer?	Tuck Everlasting	Natalie Babbitt	Page 132
2. In which book does a character admit she heard a woman calling a boy's and a girl's names even with her head under the covers?	The Old Willis Place	Mary Downing Hahn	Page 162
3. In which book will the government want a character to pay taxes on money because it appears to be his?	Lawn Boy	Gary Paulsen	Page 50
4. In which book does a marble-cake cannonball hit a character in the chest?	Scumble	Ingrid Law	Page 72
5. In which book does a lady come from a city in order to buy a character's carvings?	Ruby Holler	Sharon Creech	Page 41
6. In which book does a young man with purple spiked hair put his foot in a door to keep a pack of Chihuahuas from rushing out?	Runaway Twin	Peg Kehret	Page 147
7. In which book does a character say a group of girls has rocks for brains?	The Lemonade War	Jacqueline Davies	Page 74
8. In which book does a character concentrate on her squish-popping shoes?	A Snicker of Magic	Natalie Lloyd	Page 12
9. In which book does a character come home with a painting of fruit in a bowl to go over a livingroom couch?	The One and Only Ivan	Katherine Applegate	Page 135
10. In which book does a character drive a green Toyota?	Becoming Naomi Leon	Pam Munoz Ryan	Page 60
11. In which book does a character smile hard with her mouth but not her eyes, just like in her first runner-up picture?	School of Charm	Lisa Ann Scott	Page 2
12. In which book does a character want to see blood spurt out of someone's high-ranking nose?	Blood on the River	Elisa Carbone	Page 23
13. In which book does a character think Galileo's observation of Jupiter's moons forced people to think differently about their place in the universe?	The Fourteenth Goldfish	Jennifer L. Holm	Page 53
14. In which book do two characters make a wide circle around an abandoned tractor in a field?	A Dog's Life	Ann M. Martin	Page 38
15. In which book does a character draw a big red circle around the word BUT in her notebook?	How to Steal a Dog	Barbara O'Connor	Page 102
16. In which book does a character find himself in dim light with a Taser pointed at him?	Found	Margaret Peterson Haddix	Page 268
17. In which book does a fire pit still hold the glow of fading logs, but offers very little heat?	Stella by Starlight	Sharon M. Draper	Page 96
18. In which book does a character say, "Men and boys always want to fight. They are always looking for a reason to go to war"?	Because of Winn-Dixie	Kate DiCamillo	Page 105

Question	Title	Author
1. In which book does a character hide a bottle of water in her bureau drawer?
2. In which book does a character admit she heard a woman calling a boy's and a girl's names even with her head under the covers?
3. In which book will the government want a character to pay taxes on money because it appears to be his?
4. In which book does a marble-cake cannonball hit a character in the chest?
5. In which book does a lady come from a city in order to buy a character's carvings?
6. In which book does a young man with purple spiked hair put his foot in a door to keep a pack of Chihuahuas from rushing out?
7. In which book does a character say a group of girls has rocks for brains?
8. In which book does a character concentrate on her squish-popping shoes?
9. In which book does a character come home with a painting of fruit in a bowl to go over a livingroom couch?
10. In which book does a character drive a green Toyota?
11. In which book does a character smile hard with her mouth but not her eyes, just like in her first runner-up picture?
12. In which book does a character want to see blood spurt out of someone's high-ranking nose?
13. In which book does a character think Galileo's observation of Jupiter's moons forced people to think differently about their place in the universe?
14. In which book do two characters make a wide circle around an abandoned tractor in a field?
15. In which book does a character draw a big red circle around the word BUT in her notebook?
16. In which book does a character find himself in dim light with a Taser pointed at him?
17. In which book does a fire pit still hold the glow of fading logs, but offers very little heat?
18. In which book does a character say, "Men and boys always want to fight. They are always looking for a reason to go to war"?		